HELLO, DELIGHTED

I'm Fran Pérez, "boquerón" and millennial, passionate about digital art, new technologies and video games. I consider myself a creative, problem-solving person with a keen eye for detail.

My area of expertise includes digital and vector illustration, interface design, branding, editorial, layout, front-end, and UI/UX.

I am looking for a team where I can apply my knowledge and experience to develop new projects that require a fresh and original approach. I'm ready for a new challenge.
